Parral, Oct. 26.—The syndicate headed by J. A. Coram, of Boston, that has taken over the famous Palmilla mine of Pedro Alvarado, is said on good authority to have put up in bank $500,000 gold on this deal. Of this Alvarado gets $100,000 cash, a loan of $300,000 and the other $100,000 is for working capital. Alvarado has received $200,000 already and $200,000 more is to be paid over to him as per agreement. Both Mr. Beckman and
